Society in Parade.

Washington society women on horseback, forming a troop, will be one of the most picturesque of the features of the big woman suffrage parade and pageant to take place here March 3, according to announcement made at suffrage headquarters, 1420 F street northwest, today. It is expected that fifty or more will ride in this troop, which is being specially arranged for by the grand marshal, Mrs. R. C. Burleson, wife of Lieut. Burleson, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Meyer, Va. Among those who already have signified their intention of riding in the parade are Mrs. Churchill Candee, Miss Mary Morgan, niece of Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, and Miss Julia Goldsborough.

Well pleased with having obtained consent for the suffrage parade to march up Pennsylvania avenue from the Peace monument to the treasury department, the leaders of the movement for the big demonstration were busy today perfecting details for the affair. Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the congressional committee of the National American Woman Suffrage association, in charge of headquarters, received a letter from Mrs. Donald Hooker of Baltimore, saying that she was making arrangements for a Baltimore delegation to take part in the parade, and also for special cars to bring Baltimoreans to Washington March 3 to witness the demonstration.

The cars, she said, would be decorated with suffrage colors, green, purple and white. A banner of these colors has been swung in front of the headquarters today and attracted much attention from passersby in the streets.

"We have been fighting sixty years for the ballot," said Miss Paul, "and the green in our banner stands for the hope of success. The purple is for loyalty and the white for the pur-to be clad in green. The aids to the grand marshal will wear white, with green cloaks and little green hats.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Noyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore William Noyes, to Dr. Ralph Walker McDowell, U. S. N., will take place Monday afternoon, February 17, in St. Thomas' church, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Dorothy Williams, daughter of Gardner F. Williams, whose marriage to Monroe Eyre Pinckard, of San Francisco, takes place about the middle of April, will go over to New York shortly to spend some time with her sister, Mrs. William Wallace McIn.

Mrs. Murray, wife of Maj. Gen. Arthur Murray, U. S. A., will leave Washington shortly to make a brief visit in New York. Major and Mrs. Murray arrived in Washington recently from California and are the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ord Preston. Upon Mrs. Murray's return to Washington, a number of entertainments will be given in her honor.

Miss Sadie Murray, who is now in San Francisco, will probably come to Washington before the season closes to spend some time with Mrs. Preston.

The Misses Aleshire, daughters of Brigadier-General and Mrs. Aleshire, are entertaining as a house guest Miss Margaret Nichol, whose father, Major Nichol, U. S. A., is stationed at El Paso, Tex.

The Secretary of War entertained at dinner in honor of the general officers of the United States army assembled in Washington.

His guests included Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, Maj. Gen. Thomas Barry, Maj. Gen. William Carter, Maj. Gen. Arthur Murray, Maj. Gen. W. W. Wotherspoon, Brig. Gen. James E. Aleshire, Brig. Gen. William Crozier, Brig. Gen. A. L. Mills, Brig. Gen. H. G. Sharpe, Brig. Gen. James Allen, Brig. Gen. R. D. Potts, Brig. Gen. F. A. Smith, Surgeon General G. H. Torney, Brig. Gen. Marlon P. Maus, Brig. Gen. R. W. Hoyt, Brig. Gen. W. H. Bixby, chief of engineers; Brig. Gen. M. M. Macomb, Brig. Gen. W. Schuyler, Brig. Gen. R. K. Everson, Brig. Gen. E. M. Weaver, Brig. Gen. G. R. Smith, Brig. Gen. E. V. Steever and Brig. Gen. Frank McIntyre.

The social glories of Calumet Place, Mrs. John A. Logan's old home, when charmingly revived there yesterday. When Mrs. Logan was hostess at an afternoon tea in compliment to Mrs. Matthew T. Scott. The house so long and pleasantly familiar to most of the guests had flowers in the accustomed places, fires burning on 14 hearths and a tea table with up-to-date furnishings and dainty refreshments awaiting the guests.

Mrs. Logan was a handsome figure in an elegant gown of black and white crocodile and many fine jewels and Mrs. Scott was also in black and white, embellished by fine jeweled ornaments.

Assisting Mrs. Logan were her daughter, Mrs. Logan Tucker, and their guests, Mrs. Wood of New York city and Mrs. E. D. Scott of Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Prescott H. Galtz, Mrs. Clem, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Price, Miss Gilt, Miss Hammond and Miss Pageford, Lieut. Price and Col. Clem made the introductions.

Plans are under way for a flower ball to be given on Wednesday evening of Easter week for the benefit of the Diet Kitchen, Miss Mary Gwyn, president of the board of managers, is actively engaged in making preparations for the ball.

Senator and Mrs. Gronna of North Dakota announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lillian May Gronna, to Dr. Oscar Naumann Beffert, of North Dakota. The wedding will take place in Washington shortly after Easter.

Mrs. John C. Fremont is spending some time in Philadelphia. She was the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Grove, but is now with Mrs. George W. Childs Drexel.

Lieut. Julian Wilcox, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Wilcox, the latter formerly Miss Laura Wells, of Washington, will leave shortly for Peking, China, where they have been stationed for the last two years and a half, for a trip around the world. They will visit Spain, Rome, Paris and London en route to Brooklyn, N. Y., where Lieutenant Wilcox has been ordered to duty. Upon their arrival in New York in March, Mrs. Wilcox will come to Washington to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Henry Wells, in Twenty-first street.

CONSTIPATED, HEADACHY, BILIOUS, TONGUE COATED?—CASCARETS SURE

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged, constipated bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel.
